

St Brendan's School
1 Ti Tree Road, Dunnstown 3352
Tel: 0353 347604 Fax: 0353 347042

St Mary's School
131 Powells Road, Clarkes Hill 3352
Tel: 0353 345280 Fax: 03534 5445

PARISH PRIEST: Fr Shane Mackinlay
PRINCIPAL: Mr Chris Kavanagh

BUNGAREE PARISH SCHOOLS PRIVACY POLICY

CEO Policy 2.9.2014

To be reviewed: July 2019

Updated as per CEO Policy March 2018.

YOUR PRIVACY IS IMPORTANT

This statement outlines Bungaree Parish Schools on how the School uses and manages personal information provided to or collected by the school.

Bungaree Parish Schools, is bound by the National Privacy Principles contained in the Commonwealth Privacy Act.

Bungaree Parish Schools may, from time to time, review and update this Privacy Policy to take account of new laws and technology, changes to the School's operations and practices and to make sure it remains appropriate to the changing school environment.

What kind of personal information does Bungaree Parish Schools collect and how does the School collect it?

The type of information Bungaree Parish Schools collects and holds includes (but is not limited to) personal information, including sensitive information, about:

- ◆ pupils and parents and/or guardians ('Parents') before, during and after the course of a pupil's enrolment at the School
- ◆ job applicants, staff members, volunteers and contractors;
- ◆ other people who come into contact with the School

Personal Information you provide: Bungaree Parish Schools will generally collect personal information held about an individual by way of forms filled out by Parents or pupils, face-to-face meetings and interviews, and telephone calls. On occasions people other than Parents and pupils provide personal information.

Personal Information provided by other people: In some circumstances Bungaree Parish Schools may be provided with personal information about an individual from a third party, for example a report provided by a medical professional or a reference from another school.

Exception in relation to employee records: Under the Privacy Act the National Privacy Principles do not apply to an employee record. As a result, this Privacy Policy does not apply to the School's treatment of an employee record, where the treatment is directly related to a current or former employment relationship between the School and employee.

How will Bungaree Parish Schools use the personal information you provide?

Bungaree Parish Schools will use personal information it collects from you for the primary purpose of collection, and for such other secondary purposes that are related to the primary purpose of collection and reasonably expected, or to which you have consented.

Pupils and Parents: In relation to personal information of pupils and Parents, Bungaree Parish Schools primary purpose of collection is to enable the School to provide schooling for the pupil. This includes satisfying both the needs of Parents and the needs of the pupil throughout the whole period the pupil is enrolled at the School.

The purposes for which the school uses personal information of pupils and Parents include:

- ◆ to keep Parents informed about matters related to their child's schooling, through correspondence, newsletters and magazines
- ◆ day-to-day administration

- ◆ looking after pupils' educational, social and medical wellbeing;
- ◆ seeking donations and marketing for the School;
- ◆ to satisfy the School's legal obligations and allow the School to discharge its duty of care.

In some cases where Bungaree Parish Schools requests personal information about a pupil or Parent, if the information requested is not obtained, the School may not be able to enrol or continue the enrolment of the pupil.

Job applicants, staff members and contractors: In relation to personal information of job applicants, staff members and contractors, the School's primary purpose of collection is to assess and (if successful) to engage the applicant, staff member or contractor, as the case may be.

The purposes for which the School uses personal information of job applicants, staff members and contractors include:

- ◆ in administering the individual's employment or contract, as the case may be
- ◆ for insurance purposes
- ◆ seeking funds and marketing for the School
- ◆ to satisfy the School's legal obligations, for example, in relation to child protection legislation.

Volunteers: The School also obtains personal information about volunteers who assist the School in its functions or conduct associated activities, such as Parents' and Friends' Associations, to enable the School and the volunteers to work together.

Counsellors: The School contracts with external providers to provide counseling services for some students. The Principal may require the Counsellor to inform him or her or other teachers of any issues the Principal and the Counsellor believe may be necessary for the School to know for the well-being or development of the student who is counselled or other students of the school.

Marketing and fundraising: The School treats marketing and seeking donations for the future growth and development of the School as an important part of ensuring that the School continues to be a quality learning environment in which both pupils and staff thrive. Personal information held by the School may be disclosed to an organisation that assists in the School's fundraising, for example, the School's Foundation or alumni organisation.

Parents, staff, contractors and other members of the wider School community may from time to time receive fundraising information. School publications, like newsletters and magazines, which include personal information, may be used for marketing purposes.

Who might Bungaree Parish Schools disclose personal information to?

Bungaree Parish Schools may disclose personal information, including sensitive information, held about an individual to:

- ◆ another school
- ◆ government departments
- ◆ medical practitioners
- ◆ people providing services to the School, including specialist visiting teachers and sports coaches
- ◆ recipients of School publications, like newsletters and magazines
- ◆ parents
- ◆ anyone you authorise the School to disclose information to.

Nationally Consistent Collection of Data on School Students with Disability

The School is required by the Federal Australian Education Regulation (2013) and Australian Education Act 2013 (Cth) (AE Act) to collect and disclose certain information under the Nationally Consistent Collection of Data (NCCD) on students with a disability. The school provides the required information at an individual student level to the Catholic Education Offices and the CECV, as an approved authority. Approved authorities must comply with reporting, record keeping and data quality assurance obligations under the NCCD. Student information provided to the federal government for the purpose of the NCCD does not explicitly identify any student.

Sending information overseas: The School will not send personal information about an individual outside Australia without:

- ◆ obtaining the consent of the individual (in some cases this consent will be implied); or
- ◆ otherwise complying with the National Privacy Principles.

How does Bungaree Parish Schools treat sensitive information?

In referring to 'sensitive information', the School means: information relating to a person's racial or ethnic origin, political opinions, religion, trade union or other professional or trade association membership, sexual preferences or criminal record, that is also personal information; and health information about an individual.

Sensitive information will be used and disclosed only for the purpose for which it was provided or a directly related secondary purpose, unless you agree otherwise, or the use or disclosure of the sensitive information is allowed by law.

Management and security of personal information

Bungaree Parish Schools staff are required to respect the confidentiality of pupils' and parents' personal information and the privacy of individuals.

The School has in place steps to protect the personal information the School holds from misuse, loss, unauthorised access, modification or disclosure by use of various methods including locked storage of paper records and pass worded access rights to computerised records.

Updating personal information

Bungaree Parish Schools endeavours to ensure that the personal information it holds is accurate, complete and up-to-date. A person may seek to update their personal information held by the School by contacting the Secretary of the School at any time.

The National Privacy Principles require the School not to store personal information longer than necessary.

You have the right to check what personal information Bungaree Parish Schools holds about you

Under the Commonwealth Privacy Act, an individual has the right to obtain access to any personal information which St Example's holds about them and to advise the School of any perceived inaccuracy. There are some exceptions to this right set out in the Act. Pupils will generally have access to their personal information through their Parents, but older pupils may seek access themselves.

To make a request to access any information Bungaree Parish Schools holds about you or your child, please contact the School Principal in writing.

The School may require you to verify your identity and specify what information you require. The School may charge a fee to cover the cost of verifying your application and locating, retrieving, reviewing and copying any material requested. If the information sought is extensive, the School will advise the likely cost in advance.

Consent and rights of access to the personal information of pupils

Bungaree Parish Schools respects every Parent's right to make decisions concerning their child's education.

Generally, the School will refer any requests for consent and notices in relation to the personal information of a pupil to the pupil's Parents. The School will treat consent given by Parents as consent given on behalf of the pupil, and notice to Parents will act as notice given to the pupil.

Parents may seek access to personal information held by the School about them or their child by contacting the School Principal. However, there will be occasions when access is denied. Such occasions would include where release of the information would have an unreasonable impact on the privacy of others, or where the release may result in a breach of the School's duty of care to the pupil.

The School may, at its discretion, on the request of a pupil grant that pupil access to information held by the School about them, or allow a pupil to give or withhold consent to the use of their personal information, independently of their Parents. This would normally be done only when the maturity of the pupil and/or the pupil's personal circumstances so warranted.

Enquiries

If you would like further information about the way the School manages the personal information it holds, please contact the school principal.

Reflective materials CEO Policy 2.9.2014

